Our San Francisco Office!

THE SAN FRANCISCO BRANCH OFFICE of the TRIBUNE has been removed to 414 Montgomery Street, opposite the Russ House. It is in charge of Mr. S. V. MILLETT who will represent the TRIBUNE in San Francisco.

CAMPAIGN "TRIBUNE."

The TRIBUNE, containing the latest and fullest reliable political news, will be sent to any address during the entire campaign for $1. A liberal discount will be made to clubs. Now is the time to subscribe.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Subscribers to the TRIBUNE will confer a special favor upon the management by reporting at the office any neglect on the part of carriers.

OUR EXPLANATION.

Half a column or more of advertisements were left out of the TRIBUNE on Saturday evening for lack of room. Besides at least a column more were refused during the week, because such concessions as advertisers demanded in the matter of price, were refused. Probably as many more advertisements will be refused for the same reason this week. The TRIBUNE is the largest daily ever published in this county. Its circulation is now increasing at the rate of one hundred a week and this without extra effort. Papers are not scattered broadcast, nor are they given away to whoever will take them. Our ambition just now is that the TRIBUNE shall go into every substantial family in this city. The one hundred new subscribers last week were worth more than five hundred who are drifting about, and might only taken the paper a week or two as a matter of curiosity.

Now as the TRIBUNE has by far the largest bona fide circulation in Oakland, and in Alameda county, it follows that an advertisement in this paper must have a corresponding value. While only fair rates will be charged, concessions upon such rates cannot be made, nor will the precedent of any other paper be acknowledged for a moment.

The TRIBUNE is read probably by 5,000 people every night. Advertisers get the full value of their investment and more too. Moreover the TRIBUNE is not published as a mere advertising sheet. It aims to be a first-class news paper. Advertising is a mere incident. News is preferable at all times to advertisements inserted at unprofitable rates.

This explanation ought to satisfy all reasonable people. It satisfies us. It is not necessary just now to shut out the fact that the TRIBUNE has the best constituency in this city and county. It therefore does more than justice to advertisers, when it charges moderate rates and lays their business announcements before its readers. It satisfies us also that we are now receiving as much advertising patronage as we can make room for, and do justice to our readers, who want fresh news as well as fresh advertisements. If offers of advertisements are occasionally rejected in the future, the reason will be found substantially set forth in this article. With the present outlook there is no occasion for setting our flag at half mast. It will be kept "way up."

CORRECT THE FIGURES.

Some of our Democratic friends make awkward work in trying to figure out a majority for their ticket in this county. The following majorities are chalked on the Republican blackboard: Alameda county, 1,150. The State 9,000. The Union for Hayes and Wheeler. It is not the first time it has been necessary to correct bad arithmetic. But it is well to do it in season in this instance. If the figures for Alameda county are not satisfactory, they can be increased say, 150 more by hard work during the next six weeks. Three out of four candidates for Congress on the Republican ticket in this State, will probably be elected, and the fourth has to-day quite as good a prospect as his competitor. As our Democratic friends just now have no head for figures, we will lend them our chalk and blackboard, or will do the ciphering for them with the greatest pleasure.

Some wiseacre has busied himself during the past week in trying to create the impression that we get our dispatches by waiting until the San Francisco evening papers are out and then copying what we can find. We do nothing of the kind. The TRIBUNE goes to press at the same time as the Evening Bulletin, Post, etc. We get our dispatches here new from the Associated Press every day up to the latest hour. They are complete as everybody knows who reads our paper. The dispatches up to the latest hour never were published until the TRIBUNE secured them. A newspaper which has more than a name, to live must keep up with the news of the world. Of course weekly country papers can get along without telegraph news. But the TRIBUNE is published in the second city of California; and in the first in point of intelligence and ability to tell a good newspaper from a poor one.

Within the last ten days silver in London has advanced to 53½ pence an ounce, which brought the trade dollar up to 91½ cents, while the value of greenbacks stood at about 89½ cents. Silver half-dollars were worth less by a fraction than paper dollars.

There are eight Democrat and five Republican members of Congress in the Lower House from Indiana. The Republicans say that this order will be exactly reversed at the coming election. Arrangements have been made for the delivery of over two thousand Republican speeches in that State before the election. Over one hundred thousand copies of a single speech have been sent to that State from Washington. Indiana is just now the battle ground of the national canvass. It was once the battle ground of Harrison and Tippecanoe. A grandson of the hero of that battle is now leading the Republican forces of that State.

The San Fernando Tunnel, on the Southern Pacific Railroad, which has just been completed is the largest tunnel on the Pacific coast. Its length is 6,966 feet. There is no Tunnel on the Central Pacific road exceeding 1,200 feet. Nor were there any engineering difficulties on that road of a more formidable character than those encountered in the neighborhood of the San Fernando Pass.

SAN FRANCISCO BREVITIES.

General McDowell has recovered from his illness, and is now the streets again.

Lafayette Lane, member of Congress from Oregon, is at the Brooklyn Hotel.

G Wiley Wells member of Congress from Mississippi is at the Palace Hotel.

There were only 89 deaths in San Francisco last week, including six deaths from small-pox.

Lord Ilchester and Edward S Hope, England, and Hon James Preston, Ireland, are at the Occidental.

General Edmund Schriver, Inspector-General, U S A, arrived in this city yesterday on a tour of inspection.

The Water Commissioners are arranging for another tour. They start for Clear Lake this week and will be accompanied by an analyst.

Patrick Hussey and Martin Shannon were arrested for fighting a duel with pistols last evening in a Dupont street saloon. Neither was wounded.

Nathan A Thompson, a disappointed lover committed suicide last night, by shooting. He was employed as an electrician and had many friends.

THE GAME LAW.

Modifications Made by the Last Legislature.

Following is a synopsis of the game law as modified by the last California Legislature:

The close season for salmon commenced August 1st and extends to November 1st. Under the law passed at the last session of the Legislature it is made a misdemeanor to catch, transport or have in possession fresh salmon during this period. The penalty for a violation of the law is from $50 to $200, and this is divided between the informer, the prosecuting attorney and the school fund of the county.

Every person who, between the 1st day of January and the 1st day of September of each year, takes, kills or destroys any elk, deer, mountain sheep or antelope, is guilty of a misdemeanor; and every person who shall take, kill or destroy any of the animals herein mentioned, at any time unless the carcass of such animal is used or preserved by the person slaying it, or is sold for food, is guilty of misdemeanor. Any person catching or having in his possession, or offering for sale, shad, at any time prior to the first Monday of December, A. D. 1877, is guilty of a misdemeanor. The following counties are excepted from the provisions of this section: Del Norte, Humbolt, Shasta and Mendocino.

Section 626 of the Penal Code was amended last Winter to read as follows. Every person who in the counties of San Bernardino or Los Angelos, between the first day of April of any year and the first day of August of the same year, or who in any other of the counties of this State, excepting the counties of Lassen, Plumas and Sierra between the fifteenth day of September in each year, takes, kills or destroys quail, partridge, or grouse, mallard, wood, teal, spoonbill, or any kind of broadbill ducks, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 631. Every person who, between the fifteenth day of October in each year and the first day of April in the following year, takes or catches any trout is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 632. Every person who, in the counties of Santa Clara, Alpine, Santa Cruz, Lake, San Mateo, Monterey, Sonoma, Tuolumne, Alameda, Marin, Placer, Nevada, Plumas, Sierra, San Luis Obispo, Solano, Mariposa, Mendocino or Napa, at any time, takes or catches any trout except with hook and line is guilty of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 635.—Every person who takes, catches or kills any trout by the use of nets, weirs, baskets or traps, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

The penalty for the violation of the law is as follows:

Except in cases where different punishment is prescribed by the Code, every offense declared to be a misdemeanor is punishable by imprisonment in a county jail not exceeding six months, or by a fine not exceeding $500, or by both.

The Board of Supervisors of Santa Cruz county, at their meeting on the first Monday in August, changed the deer law so that hunters may kill deer from the 15th of August to the 1st of January, instead of (as heretofore) from the 1st of September to the 1st of January.

SILVER MINING.

Enterprising Oaklanders Developing the Mineral Resources of Humboldt County.

A prominent Oaklander who is interested in the development of a number of mines in Humboldt district, laying near the line of the C. P. R. R. in Eastern Nevada, informs us that during the past six weeks his company has run out over eighty tons of base bullion. They seem to have arrived at that very desirable point in the history of mining affairs where something is coming in and not all going out. This company recently purchased from Gen. La Buckner, of Winnemucca, the celebrated Montezuma mine, which is probably familiar to some of our readers, and a complete description of which appeared some time since in Harper's Magazine. This mine is a small bonanza of itself, and although it has been worked for a number of years past, probably never showed to a better advantage than it does to-day. At one time, a number of years ago, its bullion account with the Bank of California was the largest of any mine on record. Two large smelting furnaces are kept running on the product of this and one or two smaller mines in the same district. Some credit is due Oaklanders for the able and cool-headed manner in which they take hold of mining matters, and we hope to hear of many instances like this in which they meet with success.

EASTERN THIEVES.

George Taylor Captures a Nice Young Man from Chicago.

Chicago, Detroit and other Eastern commercial centers occasionally become over stocked with safe-experts, pick-pockets and other sharpers, and some of the supplus professionals wend their way to the Pacific Coast. They almost invariable come to grief soon after their arrival. C. P. Hahn is the name of the last one. He is a nice appearing young man, of German descent and insinuating address. He came here armed with letters of recommendation to Hon. Leland Stanford and other prominent Californians, and he "draws" these weapons whenever he wishes to produce a profound impression. Mr. Lipman, of this city, missed a valuable pistol and an opera glass from his room in the house of a Mr. Smith. The Smith family being new arrivals here, Mr. Lipman was inclined to think some member of the family had taken the articles, and he put the matter in the hands of Captain Rand. Geo. Taylor was detailed to "work up" the case. That officer soon found that Hahn insinuated himself into the good graces of the Smith family, and occasionally visited them. He went for Hahn, and yesterday arrested him and found the opera glass in his possession. The pistol had been sold for $1 50.

SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

An Intricate Question Puzzling the Brains of School Superintendents and Trustees.

A serious question affecting school interests is now agitating the Superintendent of Alameda county and some of the School Trustees under his jurisdiction. Under the Civil Code every city or incorporated town in this State forms a separate school district, unless subdivided by the Legislature. Haywards, Livermore and San Leandro having become incorporated towns by legislative enactment, the question arises how this affects the status of scholars belonging to the old districts and now shut out by the line of demarcation forming the new incorporation. The people living outside the corporate limits have assisted to build up these schools and have a direct financial interest in the school property, which is valuable. District Attorney Glasscock has the matter under advisement, and it is possible that an appeal to the courts will be necessary to a solution of the question.

Thin Story About Ohio Democrats.

CHICAGO, August 28th.—A Tribune Cleveland special says: The Leader will to-day publish an editorial statement, for which it holds itself responsible, that on Friday, from 10 to 1 o'clock, the Ohio Democratic Central Committee held a meeting at Put-in-Bay, several other prominent Democrats being also present, and discussed at length and warmly the question whether Ohio should accept and use a corruption fund of a quarter of a million dollars from the Democratic clubs and local committees of New York and Philadelphia, to be used in the city districts of Ohio in purchasing votes to carry the October elections. It was stated the Democracy could reasonably expect to hold the 293,000 votes cast last fall for Governor Allen, and if they could add a change of 3,000 in Cincinnatti, Cleveland and Toledo, they could win the election. To purchase these votes it was proposed to apply the money. A member from the rural districts earnestly opposed the proposition on high moral and political grounds, and was met by the argument that this was the only way to save the country; that the end justified the means. These remarks were received with applause, and by a formal vote the Committee decided to receive the money for the purpose stated. Strong and well chosen committees of reliable men in Cleveland, Toledo, Dayton and Cincinnati will disburse the funds, which are to be used for the purchase of votes in open market on election day.

Tilden's Weak Answer to the Charge of Perjury.

Thoughtful Courtesy of Vice President Ferry.

Favorable Turn in the Chicago Grain Market.

Further Postal Changes for the Pacific Coast.

PRODIGIOUS EFFORTS TO SECURE McKEE'S PARDON.

Tilden's Defence will not Answer.

CHICAGO, August 27.—The Tribunes' Washington special says: There has been much uneasiness here for some days among the Democratic managers o the recent Congressional Committees over the charge that Tilden swore falsely in connection with his income. They have been anxiously awaiting an explanation from New York, admitting the seriousness of the matter, unless it could be satisfactorily met. The purported explanation of Tilden's secretary that the railroad fees were not entirely included in his income for 1862, although received in that year, was not accepted here by Democrats, and some of them even questioned the authority of the dispatch from Albany attributing that excuse to the secretary, until one of Tilden's recognized New York organs arrived last night with a formal editorial defence, based on the same grounds. however. All are shrewd enough to see that the defence will not answer the gravity of the charge. The ease with which all classes of voters comprehend it, and the convincing nature of the few sentences of proof which establish it, are the elements of the case which cause so much trouble. It is really the only charge which has given Tilden's followers here any real concern.

Vice-President Ferry and the Kerr Obsequies.

WASHINGTON, August 27th.—It is mentioned as a sad coincidence, that the journey of Hon. T. W. Ferry, President of the Senate, to Washington last Fall, just previous to the opening of the session, was to attend the obsequies of Vice-President Wilson, presiding officer of the Senate, and his journey home at the close of the session was with the remains of Mr. Kerr, presiding officer of the House. The action of Ferry in delaying his departure from Washington when he received intelligence of the death of Mr. Kerr, in order that he might pay a tribute of respect to the dead statesman and accompany his remains to their final resting place, is spoken of as appropriate, and friends of the deceased express their approbation of the thoughtful courtesy of the presiding officer of the Senate.

Chicago Grain Market.

CHICAGO, August 27.—The grain trade has experienced a favorable turn during the past six days. Prices have advanced considerably, and firmness has characterized dealings. The wheat crop is all secured, and, with few exceptions, every section of the Northwestern States turns out wheat of excellent quality. Taken as a whole, the crop in this wheat-growing belt is probably not a full average, but how much below the average cannot now be determined. The business outlook of Chicago is encouraging.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Russian Officers Arriving at Belgrade.

Turkey to Grant a Short Armistice.

Alexinatz Surrounded on Three Sides.

THE TURCO-SERVIAN WAR.

Turkey to Grant a Short Armistice.

BERLIN, August 28th.—The Powers have agreed to request the Porte to accede to a suspension of hostilities. Turkey has resolved to grant only a short armistice for the purpose of accelerating the settlement of the terms of peace.

The situation of Alexanitz.

LONDON, August 28th.—The Standard's Belgrade dispatch says: While Prince Milan is showing his good sense in trying to negotiate peace, Russian officers continue to arrive in great numbers, and General Tchernayeff, by repeated attacks upon the Turkish lines, is doing his best to make negotiations abortive. He has hurried so far that the Porte, in reply to the tender of mediation by the Powers, declined to listen to proposals until Alexinatz surrendered. Consequently, Servian authorities report more great victories, but without foundation. The Servians may have driven back the Turkish column which advanced from St. Stephen and getting off the level ground were obliged to retreat; but the Turks are on the right and left banks of the Marantza, near Alexinatz. There is a possibility of the occupation of the Servain frontier and of Belgrade itself by an Austrian corps. Fifteen thousand Austrians on the Danube are ready to march at a moment's notice.

The Servian Voice Still for War.

LONDON, August 28—6 A. M.—Telegrams from Belgrade report that the discontent among the people on account of the negotiations is daily becoming more intense. The demands of foreign representatives for a cessation of hostilities is refused by the Ministry.

A dispatch from Vienna says the Porte requires that Prince Milan shall address overtures for peace direct to the Turkish Government.

A Berlin special announces that at a council of the Servian Cabinet, Prince Milan's resolution in favor of mediation was disapproved by a vote of three to ten.

Tchernayeff Resumes the Aggressive.

LONDON, August 28—6 A. M.—A Belgrade special says: Tchernayeff and Horvatich drove the Turks out of Bangavietz and Stancia, and then joined their forces, which increases the army of the Marowitza to 10,000 men. Notwithstanding, Kerim Pasha on the whole has made a clean advance, being on three sides of Alexinatz, which is decidedly in danger.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Fatal Results of a Mistake.

LONDON, August 28—6 A. M.—A dispatch from Dasdtschen reports that on Tuesday two columns of Servians, at Alexinatz, mistook each other for the enemy, and a serious fight took place before the error was discovered. Some Bulgarian volunteers shot their commander, who ordered them to advance. The wounded men declined to have operations performed by English surgeons, as do nine in ten natives in similar cases, although they know death with follow refusal.

PARIS, August 27.—A banquet was given to-day to the independent delegates representing workmen, who have just returned from Philadelphia. Des Maulina described their visit, and others made speeches. Letters from Victor Hugo and Louis Blanc were read, and resolutions adopted tendering thanks to their friends in America for the cordial reception given the delegates.

SHAMEFUL OUTRAGE.

The Valley Hoodlums Assault a Clergyman at Temescal.

There is a gang of hoodlums living on Willow, Poplar and Twenty-fourth street, in this city, the members of which are in a fair way to graduate at San Quentin. They are spotted by the Oakland police and dare not venture upon any demonstration within the city limits except under cover of darkness. Captain Badger has forbidden their admission to his park. Yesterday some of these rascals who had imbibed plenty of whiskey at Humboldt Park, made their way to the school house near the bridge on the Shattuck road, and when the services were ended insulted the congregation as it began to disperse, with a volley of oaths and obscene expressions. Six or eight of them surrounded a buggy in which the minister was seated and one of the party struck him a violent blow over the head. The outrage was entirely unprovoked and appears to have been prompted by sheer fiendishness. The offense was committed outside the city limits, but a complaint before the township Justice would be promptly attended to, and Captain Rand and his officers would cheerfully co-operate in bringing the hoodlums to justice.

THE RIFLE CONTEST.

Dr. Pardee Again Victorious at Bay View.

At the eighth monthly shooting match for the California Rifle Association, which took place at the Bay View grounds Saturday, Dr. Pardee again won the Association's Gold medal. By the terms of the contest, the medal belongs to whoever wins it three times. This is Pardee's third triumph, and the medal now belongs to him. Captain Burns, of the Sumner Guard, had previously won it twice. Dr. Pardee won by scouring 41 points out of a possible 51—82 per cent., the highest score yet made at a public match. The match was 1,000 yards; 10 shots; any artificial rest; two sighting shots.

THERE ARE MANY AGREABLE peculiarities in the climate of Oakland, among which may be noted the fact that any matrimonial unions that have not been prolific of "little darlings" elsewhere, have, on the removal of the parties to Oakland been blessed with a "quiver full of them," as is demonstrated by the number of high chairs, cradles, etc., sold by Shellhaas, Eleventh street, Odd Fellows' Building.

BLUETT & FARNDON, SUCCESSORS to Dunham & Lathrop and Dunham & Bluett, photographers, 1157 Broadway, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets. Pictures copied and enlarged, and finished in oil, ink, or water colors. Parties wanting photographs or paintings in the finest styles and at the cheapest rates should give them a call.

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

NEWSPAPERARCHIVE®

Oakland Evening Tribune

MONDAY.....AUGUST 28, 1876.

EACH DAY WELL-SPENT.

Each day well-spent; how sweet the thought!
Worth all the gold that Earth hath wrought;
Worth all the pageantry and show
That glitters in this world below;
Makes man to be just what he should,
And just as God intended,—good,—
A faithful friend and devotee,
Sincere in his humility.

A noble form, a noble mien,
A noble mind—these most are seen,
Not in the outward, empty grace,
But in the inward, thoughtful face.
As greater treasures most are found
Deep in the Earth, far underground,
So purest thoughts and highest aims
Deep in the soul, still found, remain.

Each day well-spent brings peace of mind,
The joy, the bliss of humankind,
Without which man were poor indeed;
Though great his wealth, dire is his need;
Wealth's measured only by the store
Of Good Deeds—nothing less nor more,
As Vice and Virtue're far apart,
So Good, not Bad, must rule the heart.

Industry is the darling theme
On which to dwell, on which to dream;
Then Life's great toils find recompense
In what we need most—'tis good sense;
Good sense can only come from Heaven,
And come it must when well we've striven,—
A fit reward, but nothing more,—
And this is Life's best, richest store.

Two stores in McMinnville, Yamhill county, Oregon, were burglarized Saturday night. Both the safes were blown open and rifled of their contents. The burglars got away with about $1,350 in gold coin. There is no clew to the perpetrators.

SPOONS AGAIN.

Ben Butler has an Unexpected Rival—Charley Spencer as Another Hero of Spoons.

Col. Charles S. Spencer, counsellor-at-law, some years ago had to defend one Marshall, charged with larceny, and against whom there was very strong evidence. Before the trial Spencer went to his client and told him that his only chance of escape was in a plea of insanity, and he advised him to play the lunatic, and to answer all questions put to him with the word "spoons." The day of the trial came on, and Marshall took his place in the dock, pale, haggard, and wild looking.

"Guilty or not guilty?" asked the clerk.

"Spoons!" drawled the prisoner, with a blank stare.

"Come, plead guilty or not guilty," repeated the clerk.

"Spoons!" was the only reply.

"Prisoner, will you answer the questions put to you, or do you want to be punished for contempt!" asked the Judge.

"Spoons!" bawled the prisoner, still unmoved.

At this point the counsel for the prisoner interfered and told the Court that his client was not in a condition to be put on trial, as he was evidently not responsible for his actions, and it was an outrage on free citizens, &c.

"Do you understand what is said?" asked the Judge, addressing the prisoner.

"Spoons?" was his reply, in accents wild.

It was evident the man was crazy, and the Judge ordered him discharged. He was taken charge of by his friends, who were present, and left the court with him. Counsellor Spencer followed them, and congratulating him on his escape, suggested that it might be a good idea to pay him his fee. His client stared at him in blank amazement, and moved away with the simply remark, "Spoons!"

An Operation in Insurance.

A man in business here, who is somewhat noted for his care in driving a bargain, applied to one of our insurance offices to know the lowest rate at which they would insure $100 worth of pitch for a month.

It was well stored, and the underwriter mechanically replied:

"One per cent., Mr. Squeezer."

"Isn't that a little high, and couldn't you say three-quarters?" asked the applicant.

"No, sir! Good gracious! Why 'tis only $1, and we won't write a policy for less."

"Very well, send it down to my store, and I'll take it."

Down to Squeezer's store went the policy by a clerk, one of the hottest days of the season, and the dollar was collected, but about two weeks afterwards the old man come panting into the office quite anxious.

"See here, Mr. President, I'm afraid I shall have to have this policy altered.

The insurance on the pitch is all right, but I wish you would cross out the words "war or civil commotions."

"We cannot do that, Mr. Squeezer, we insure your property against the ordinary hazard of fire, not war or riot."

"Well, well," said the old man, then I suppose you'll refund the premium, and I'll return the policy."

"You forget, Mr. Squeezer, that you have been insured for two weeks already."

"Yes, yes; then gi' me back half the premium, an' cancel it."

Amused at this display of meanness, the official drew fifty cents from his pocket, which the old man seized with avidity, slapped down his policy, and shuffled off with a chuckle, for he had sold his pitch that morning.

The office clerks who overheard the conversation have since been ciphering out the amount of profit accruing to the company by the transaction.—Boston Commercial Journal.
